“ I remember years ago when Raynelle, Phil and friends were bringing over a picnic table for a cook out at our house. They'd loaded the picnic table onto the back of a pick up truck and were all seated at the table banging their forks and knives as they roared into our driveway. So many memories. A life well lived. I loved her and will miss her.

“ We really enjoyed every conversation and moment we shared with Raynell over the years. No matter how bad a situation was she may have been going through, our conversations always ended with smiles. Her smile was always beautiful. Even during times she looked frail, talking to her always confirmed just how VERY strong of a woman she actually was. We pray her family can find strength during this sad time, and we send our condolences to you all. We will miss her dearly.
