

Mr. Adolf Krause

February 6, 2015

KRAUSE, Adolf, 81, of Plant City, Florida, entered into eternal rest on February 6, 2015. He was a WWII survivor of Nazi Germany, where his memoirs were published in Hitler's Children, A Travesty of War. He retired from GTE/Verizon after 25 years of service. He is survived by his children Irene Bridges of Plant City, and Steven Krause (Gigi) of Odessa; grandchildren Adam Krause, Jessica Copeland, Tiffany Murray (Josh) and Staci Pierce (Kyle); great-grandchildren Faith, Weston, and Kylie; and other family in Germany. The family will receive friends on Saturday, February 14 from 10-11:00 A.M. at Hopewell Funeral Home, 6005 CR 39 S, Plant City. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to an Alzheimer's organization of your choice. Expressions of condolence at www.HopewellFuneral.com.

“ My condolence to the family, especially Irene who worked so hard and endless to make things better for Adolf.

My memories of Adolf will always be of a man who was full of energy and loved to socialize and make his wine. He always had a great smile and a happy hello to everyone.

He will be greatly missed.

“ A special tribute to the memories of Adolf Krause who in the years we were friends I found a man with a desire to open his heart to those he cared for. He held a special place in his heart for my little Rosebud (grandson) and God will surely bless him for one who blessed one of God's chosen.....Larry, Deby Jo, Jordan and Mama;
