“ Alicia always had a kind word and a smile that totally lit up whatever room she entered! She was very special and loved by everyone who knew her young and old. She left us much too soon and the only rational that I can think of is God needed a special Angel in Heaven..... because that what he got! All we can do is try to fill the void that is left with the members that she gave us!

“ I sit & wonder & watch the days go by. I look at all the pictures & ask why did you have to leave me . You’re always been there for me, because you was my best friend, & I was always there for you until the very end. But now it’s time to let you go . Your spirit now if free, even though you won’t really be gone, because you’ll live inside of me. I am so glad that we was Best Friends, but this isn’t where our journey ends. The memories we have will last forever more. I will always remember your smiling, beautiful face. I will always love you , for that I’m sure. Miles apart but Best Friends from the heart. I know in my heart we will never part. So this is hardly a goodbye, so I won’t weep anymore. Even thought I will Miss You Dearly & I’ll think about you everyday. You’ lol always be My Best Friend & that’s all I have to say . Cindy and family I am so sorry for ur loss & prayers be with you all. Wish I could be there . Love , Big Hugs & kisses to.

“ I have looked at this picture many times this week. Just knowing we won’t have these memories anymore is heartbreaking. You have always said you were my 4th daughter and I have always welcomed this job as “second mom”. Craig has lost a daughter as he was your “go to” when you needed something. Our family now has another void , but we find comfort knowing you are in a beautiful place. Have that beer with papa and give mom a hug from us all 💔 Love you 💕

Nothing will ever be the sam. Our hearts are broken knowing if we go out for dancing your beautiful smile will not be a part of our evening. May God have his arms around you. 💔

“ Alicia where do I even begin, I was in complete shock and heart broken when I heard the news. I started thinking about our middle school days at Turkey creek we shared so many memories then and then our high school days but the journey didn't end there we then got to enjoy working together in adult hood. You were someone who loved others and you had the biggest heart and sweetest soul. You were an amazing friend who was always there no matter what. Also you were one heck of a line dancer lol. You are a gem that will forever be missed god truly gained an amazing angel. "Love you, mean it"💔💔💔😭😭

Oh dear Alicia, you were the one who said I needed to hug and except hugs more openly. I'm working on it! Remembering the Moose meeting upon my return last fall, when we locked eyes with a squeal and Huge hug. Your true friendship and that hug will stay with me forever!!!
