“ Amber was not only my niece but she was a brilliant, sweet and wonderful young lady. Everyone that came into contact with her loved her. She was a great cook and had hoped to one day become a chef or own her own restaurant. Although she was sick a great deal of her life she always was very optimistic and would always tell everyone "she was fine" even when we knew better. She spent many week ends at our home and the memories that I have of her will always be kept alive. She was like my child and I miss her dearly but I know that she has a new body now free from pain and that she is an angel in Heaven. I love you the whole world and beyond Amber. Your Aunt Cookie forever.
