“ 10 birthdays without you. You would be 52 this year. It's hard to picture. Your Aunt Nancy joined those who wait on the other side. Remember how we would put our Christmas tree up on your birthday. “ I came across this poem which says it so well.

*I still count to four
When I gather forks to set the dinner table or when I calculate the brownie cuts
so that all have equal parts*

I still count you in my unconscious movements the momentary minutia of my days

*You are absent
but not from my thoughts or pulse or breath.*

“ I had the pleasure of working with Drew at Comair. I don't think I ever got to fly with him but I did get to speak with him many times. I was a Crew Scheduler, we were the department that every pilots family knows that if we call you don't answer the phone!! It was my job to notify Drew of any changes to his daily schedule. I must say every time I got to call on Drew it wasn't work, it was my pleasure. He was always very nice, extremely pleasant and I will always remember him as the utmost professional. Rest in peace friend, I'm so sad to hear of your passing. But know we can all take joy in knowing you're on your ultimate flight! I can only imagine the beauty.
