“ We remember Angelo as my son's soccer coach 14 years ago. He was an incredible coach, very talented, and truly loved the kids. Angelo was a true friend and had an immense passion for soccer; he never liked to lose. He always pointed the kids in the right direction. He was a good man, and he will be greatly missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time.

“ The most important thing to remember about Angelo is his kindness and deep love for his family. He truly, truly loved his kids, and that's something we can never forget. Before you even walked into wherever he was, you could hear his laugh from the street. RIP Steven Stout
