“ Through the short years I learned to know Annie, I enjoyed conversing with her. I also loved her wonderful, delicious pound cake, which she shared with her church family and friends. I have made it numerous times and it is always a 'big hit.' She also enjoyed music and gave me a number of classical CDs, which I have enjoyed listening to. Even though she no longer is with us, her sweet memory will remain in my heart, forever. Rest in peace, my dear Annie.

“ Very dear to my heart! I love her more than she ever knew. She was always jovial and always telling jokes. She could talk to anyone, there were no strangers. She taught me a lot about life. Knew her Bible inside and out. I love you grandma, there is a void in my heart with you gone but I know you are in a better place...probably holding papa's hand! Till we meet again, I love you!

“ I will always remember her for being so sharp-witted. She loved her family very much. We will miss Grandma Evers. Everyone who knows her knows that she is so happy to be with Papa again. I'm so blessed that they were in my life. Love, Renae

Sally and I were very fond of Annie. She would always have something cheerful and encouraging to say. We will miss her and we love Gus and Pat. A great loss for the family, community, and this home we share on earth. See you later Sister! John Seymour

Darryel and I have lot of fond memories of Mrs Annie at Friday Night Bible Study suppers. She sure knew how to have fun. I'll bet she is having a good time in Heaven.
