“ She was my dear friend. I enjoyed our day trips, having lunch and the fun we shared. We visited an antique store and she bought me a beautiful set of Christmas ornaments from China. Every year, I think of her when I hang them. I know Linwood was glad to see her come through the gate.

“Arienne was such a beautiful person, both inside and out. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her. I remember one time when she was able to come to church she told me how much she loved seeing me singing the choir and that she was so happy I had joined their Church. I gave her and Pastor crosses that I have gotten that were made out of Olive Wood from the Holy Lands. Pastor told me she took that with her to every appointment and every treatment and held it close. I know she's in a better place and that we will see her again someday. My thoughts and prayers are going out to Pastor, their two daughters, and their whole family. Heaven has a lot of beautiful people up there and Arienne you are now one of them. Rest in peace my sweet friend till we meet in Heaven again someday.
