“ I was lucky to have met Dan and his family, many years ago, through a college relationship I had with his daughter, Lori. To this day, I'll never forget what a great man he was. He had a wonderful sense of humor, and I remember admiring him for the relationships he had with his wife and kids. Even for the relatively short time I knew him, he had become a role model for me. I will be forever grateful to Dan for writing a letter of introduction for me with State Farm which, in no small part, helped me get my career started after college. Looking back, I was so lost and immature at the time, I'm certain that, without his help, I would've had a much tougher go at things. I hope his family are doing well, and wish them the best in life.
