“ Barbara, you were one of the funniest people I have ever known. You missed your chance to be a comedian. I have laughed at your jokes and your stories until my side would hurt and tears rolling down my face. There was never any doubt how you felt about any given situation, the old "don't ask me, if you don't what to know" fit you perfectly. But, you also had a heart of gold and you were very kind. Matt and Brenda loved you so much, they will miss you even more. Karen and Jimbo too, as well as your many friends. In the future when I think of you, I'll smile remembering seeing you a few weeks ago and even as sick as you were, still cracking jokes and making me laugh. You'll be a good fit in Heaven. Rest in Peace dear lady!
