“ Thank you for having kind words to speak to me, when we spoke by phone, and encountered reconciliation and peace regarding our recent misunderstanding, Bertha. I wish you the best blessings in your continued journeys in heaven. Also, I am sorry that I didn't do more to try and help you beat your cancer, but please rest assured that I did try my best, and, to your family, Brother Shawn (your son) and Donald (your husband) and all the rest of your family: I offer my deepest condolences for your loss and the pain you are facing right now. Lastly, I offer special thanks to my cousin, Jason Lee Mattair, for bringing this to my attention, just now. May God's blessings rest upon you, one and all.
