

Mrs. Beth L. Parks

March 9, 1959 - March 22, 2023

Beth L. Parks, 64, of Plant City, born on March 9, 1959 in Encino, California, entered into eternal rest on March 22, 2023. She loved her family dearly, was a member of Quilts of Valor 71033 Tangled Threads, and enjoyed designing and making quilts. She is survived by spouse of 46 years, Jesse H. Parks III; children, Jaclyn L. Baxter of Plant City, Jesse H. Parks IV of Port St. Lucie, and Sam Creighton of Valrico; grandchildren, Rylee, Jesse V, and Ethan; brothers, Boyd Lamb, Blane Lamb, and Brad Lamb; sister-in-law, Kate Parks; and many nieces, nephews, family, and friends. Memorial contributions may be made to Quilts of Valor at <https://qovf.app.neoncrm.com/np/clients/qovf/donation.jsp?campaign=169&>. Expressions of condolences at www.HopewellFuneral.com

Tribute Wall

LE

“ Beth had the warmest heart. I will cherish the friendship she shared with me forever. Condolences to all the family. ”

Lee-Ann - April 29, 2023 at 10:49 PM

CH

“ Cheryl Hurley lit a candle in memory of Mrs. Beth L. Parks ”

Cheryl Hurley - March 28, 2023 at 01:32 PM

CB

“ To Katie, Jesse and family, we are so sorry to hear that you have lost Beth. Our thoughts are with you. Sending hugs and condolences. Chrissie & Mac Burriss ”

Chrissie Burriss - March 27, 2023 at 03:33 PM

DB

“ I'll never forget all the help she gave when Rylee was a baby. We couldn't have done it with out her. She always knew to put extra onion in for me when she made her (my favorite) enchiladas. She was was great mother in law. ”

Dennis Baxter - March 26, 2023 at 06:55 PM