“ Rest in Peace Poppa
The world is truly at a loss without your loving heart. You will be tremendously missed and profoundly mourned. I am forever grateful that you + Momma accepted me into your home and cared for me as your own. My life would be so very different right now had that not happened. Every choice that I make is better because of that very experience. It's been a while now, but I still love you all the same. Always - Angela P.

“ Mrs.Goddard, Alan, Lori and Cheryl.

I am so sorry for your loss. Words can provide some smiles, do I will share my words with you in hopes to put a smile on your faces and hopefully your hearts.

Although "The Goddards" were not my Foster Parents, they were however Parents to three of my siblings. Wade Rowan, Charlie Butler and my little Sister Billie Dee. I was allowed on occasion, to come visit and WOW what a visit. DINNER TIME was amazing and My fondest memory would have to be Mr. Goddard saying the blessing. The chatter, laughing, clicking of the silver ware. I looked up and seen Mr.Goddard paying no attention to the 20 Or something children talking and I was so distracted with all the stories. He obviously had learned! Block, eat and get to the recliner, in his case, if I remember correctly, Nap Thirty in Bed, because it was back to church that Evening!

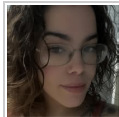

He was a good Father, and to many. Now he's with his Father.

You are all in my Prayers. Good Bless!

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Bethel. When he was a teenager he worked in my parents grocery store. He was so good with the customers and a hard worker. I always enjoyed Saturdays when Aunt Maggie and Inez would come to shop. Elizabeth would often come with them. Then as an adult he was such a good father to his children and to the many foster children he and Ann provided a home for. He always saw that they were in church every Sunday. As his loving family you can be so proud of the fine Christian man that he was. Love always, Jeanette
