“ I am sorry Kris and I could not make it. I will miss "Aunt Betty". I always thought she was so cool when I was a kid - I wanted to look and be like her! (I did marry someone much older than me!!) She will be missed. But I take comfort in knowing she is with our Lord. Praise God! I am glad she is in heaven now with all our other family members. I'm sure they are having a great time.

Love to everyone.

“ I wish so much that I could be there today. This Bailey branch on our family tree...the ups, the downs, marriages, children, holidays, vacations, reunions, and the separation of miles. Yet we remain a part of each other forever, and in that way not even death will separate us.

The mother of 4 boys, a wife, a daughter, a grandmother, an aunt. She was an extraordinary woman, and she will be missed. She lived a lifetime of stories and memories. We can each honor her by passing those stories on.

Think of her as living in your hearts....for nothing loved is EVER lost. It brings me such peace to picture her now with Sam. I can only imagine her welcome with Ma and Pa Bailey, Ruth, Bob and so many others that left this world before her. Goodbye Betty Jean Bailey Adams. RIP!
