“ Our kids played football and cheered together...she was Betty J and I was Betty C. I would frenchbraid Toni's hair all the the time. Then I started driving a bus and we talked like we just saw each other last week, not years ago...Betty J, go rest high on that mountain. I have the memories. Love ya, Betty C Brown ❤️❤️

I just saw this obit. Betty lived across the street from us in Turkey Creek and then I moved away in 2004. My son and Larry were very good friends and played for the Turkey Creek Trojans. Toni was good friends with my daughter and cheered and played together. Betty was definitely a jokester and we enjoyed being across street and then across the creek neighbors. She was such a genuine lady and a great friend! Rest In Peace, Betty!!!
