Betty T. Ketchersid

Betty T. Ketchersid, a devoted mother, friend, and beloved teacher, passed away peacefully in her sleep on August 24, 2025, in Lakeland, Florida. Betty was a Florida girl through and through. She was born in Frostproof, Florida, the daughter of E. Grady and Mae Belle Tindell. She graduated from Florida State University and during a brief sojourn North, received a Master's Degree from the University of Illinois.

Betty excelled in the classroom and taught Business Education for high school students at Tampa Bay Technical High School and adult computer systems and information technology through her retirement from Erwin Technical College. She loved her students and they often expressed how much they enjoyed being in Ms. K's classes. When she was able, Betty traveled with her wonderful group of friends from teaching and church.
