

Betty Logue

October 22, 2010

LOGUE, Elizabeth (Betty) L., 87, of Plant City, FL. went to be with the Lord on her birthday, October 22, 2010. She was preceded in death by her husband, Reverend Gerald E. Logue, with whom she founded The Deliverance Tabernacle. She served her country during World War II, in the Navy as a WAVE (Women Accepted for Volunteer Emergency Service) from January 1942 until October 1943. Betty was a loving, giving Christian person who baked pound cakes and cookies for everyone she knew. She regularly visited people in local nursing homes until she was well into her eighties. She is survived by her children, Maribeth L. Mobley, Ginny O'Neal and husband, Johnny, Joe Logue and wife, Mary, and Martha Huard and husband, Harold. Betty is also survived by her brother, James Morgan and wife, Linda; seven grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and two sister-in-laws, Libby Keegan and Retta Brock. The visitation will be held Thursday, Oct. 28 from 6-8:00 pm at Hopewell Funeral Home, 6005 County Rd. 39 S., Plant City. A celebration of life will take place, Fri., Oct. 29 at 10:00 am at The Deliverance Tabernacle, 808 W. Grant Street, Plant City with Rev. Rillene Hyde officiating. Interment will follow in Hopewell Memorial Gardens, Plant City. Flowers will be accepted or friends may make donations to LifePath Hospice, 12973 Telecom Pkwy., Ste. 100, Temple Terrace, Fl. 33637, or to The Deliverance Tabernacle, 1308 S. Waller St., Plant City, 33563.