SO

“A Mother's Embrace, Though Unfelt”
Though never held in arms so young,
A mother's love, a silent song.
In whispers of the wind, I hear,
Her gentle voice, so soft and near.
A life unknown, a face unseen,
Yet in my heart, her love has been.
A bond of life, a thread so fine,
Connecting me, to her, to time.
Though miles apart, her spirit guides,
A guiding star, where hope resides.
In every breath, her presence stays,
A mother's love, in countless way.
