“ A big, beautiful, sensitive Heart full of genuine Compassion and Love... a Woman who was truly amazed by and in love with Father God's wonderful creation. A deeply-feeling heart with a sharp, inquisitive mind. This is my Auntie Bev to me. Loving, kind, sensitive, gentle AND strong. An inherent appreciation and love for plants and animals and a natural ability to help them thrive. The ocean, seashells, sea grape trees, orchids, Willie Nelson, happy animals, lots of good laughs and even crys together, and big hugs. These are a few of the many things that remind me of my Auntie Bev. Most of all, a very real and very loving heart.

“ It was 1943. My Sister Beverly was born at the Norman, Ok. Navy Base Hospital where our Dad was in training . Soon after her birth, Dad shipped out to the War in the Pacific. Mom and Bev returned to Miami to live with my Grandmother to live out the War hoping and praying Dad would return home. He missed her first birthday but sent her the attached Post Card. Beverly's first birthday was celerbrated with a cake and a picture of her Dad. And thank you Lord for getting him back home so Beverly could have a baby brother.
