“ I will miss my wonderful Uncle Bill. As a little girl, Mom, Dad, Wade and me would go to see Aunt Mildred and Uncle Bill to go fishing on their dock at their lake place at the time. We would go to the "worm garden" to get fresh worms to go fishing. I remember lots of laughter and them telling us "young kids", stories and memories of their times. Uncle Bill always had a big smile on his face and always gave me big hugs when I saw him. That still held true just recently at Aunt Tam's funeral. He remembered me and said, with a big smile on his face... "Marlene, I can't believe that it's you... you are so grown-up!!!". Seeing his smiling face and the look in his eyes, brought back wonderful memories and the contentment in his life. I will always remember my Uncle Bill....I love you.
