“ Vickie, Cindy and Mandy who are like sisters to me. Thank you for sharing your Dad with me and my family. We were truly blessed to have him as a part of our life. So many memories of fun times! That is what life is all about; what you leave behind. I will miss him deeply but he is taking a piece of my heart with him. My love and prayers are with you all today. Love, Glenda (his 4th adopted daughter) Vickie, Cindy and Mandy, I have known your Dad since we were all kids and must say that he was one of the finest men I have ever known. He always treated me, my family and all of his friends as though they were part of his family. As the years went by, he became more of a father to me and more important, a true friend. I will miss him dearly. Thanks for sharing him with me. Love Billy###imported-begin###Glenda O'Brien###imported-end##

“ Vickie, Cindy, and Mandy ~ I have thought of you often and the times Bonnie, Elnita and I played cards with your Mom, and your Dad would take the dog and go to the movies. I was away when your Mom was ill and did not know about her passing, but saw the paper this week and learned of your Dad. My thoughts and prayers are with you now and I hope the love of family and friends will bring you comfort at this time.###imported-begin###Kathy Jones###imported-end##

“ Dad...so many images come to mind whenever I speak your name; It seems without you in my life things have never been the same. What happened to those lazy days when I was just a child; When my life was consumed in you in your love, and in your smile. What happened to all those times when I always looked to you; No matter what happened in my life you could make my gray skies blue. Dad, some days I hear your voice and turn to see your face; Yet in my turning...it seems the sound has been erased. Dad, who will I turn to for answers when life does not make sense; Who will be there to hold me close when the pieces just don't fit. Oh, Dad, if I could turn back time and once more hear your voice; I'd tell you that out of all the dads you would still be my choice. Please always know I love you and no one can take your place; Years may come and go but your memory will never be erased. Today, Jesus, as You are listening in your home above; Would you go and find my dad and give him all my love. please accept my deepest sympathy. all my love Sharon##imported-begin##Sharon Ratell Brown##imported-end##
