“ My dear Aunt Bobbie, a treasure for many years in our family. The angels are rejoicing in Heaven for such as her. I have so many wonderful memories of her joyful and lively spirit when visiting Umatilla, Florida to see Aunt Bobbie, Uncle Marshall, Janet, Marcella, and David. . .or when they drove all the way to Missouri to visit our family. In Umatilla, we always were shown such a good time -- lots of fun, laughter, and a little work in the orange grove. We were quickly spoiled to her home cooking. She will be greatly missed by Stan and me, and I am sure in Plant City as well, among all her friends, and family. My spirit will be there over the miles, all the way from Texas, as you celebrate her "home going." I love you always Aunt Bobbie. "Fly girl, Fly!"

Your Texas niece, Judy Hulen
