“ I met Sonja through the love of quilting and her loving support when I lost my furbaby suddenly.

We talked on the phone as we are 3+ hours apart in miles, but made plans to meet for a quilting get together.

I'm a little shy but Bobby was sweet and kind and easy to be around. I grew to love them both and admired the relationship they had.

If I was able to come down for a visit Bobby was so kind and cooked for us and gave Sonja and I "friend time" and even laughed at our silly antics while taking pictures of us.

Bobby made me feel very welcome to come visit my special friend and I loved him for that.

Sonja you know my heart aches for you and I'm going to be there for you. Call me any time you need a shoulder, an ear or a piece of fabric, lol.

I've got plenty of all three. Most of all take good care of yourself bc you are very loved. Bobby loved you very much and would be happy to know you have family and friends to lean on.

We've made some wonderful memories and Kenny and I are blessed to have known Bobby as well as you.

“ Bobby and Sonya were one of my most favorite couples at Kmart pharmacy in the 90s. Bobby was the nicest and most patient person I have ever met. Rest high on that mountain!
