

Mr. Bradley Wayne Schaub

April 19, 1973 - October 6, 2023

Bradley Wayne Schaub, 50, of Auburndale, born on April 19, 1973, in Livonia, Michigan, entered into eternal rest on October 6, 2023. He had many accomplishments throughout his time in the United States and Japan. To list a few, he was a career elementary English teacher in Japan, was fluent in Japanese, a practitioner of Iaijutsu martial art, and enjoyed history, photography, and reading. To add to the list, he graduated from Eastern Michigan University with a Japanese and Marketing dual major in 1998. While living in Michigan, he was involved in photography, producing many pictures. His focus was on astronomical and nature pictures. At one of the high points in his professional career, he contributed to the trade delegations between the state of Michigan and the country of Japan, helping with translation and cultural education. Shortly after, he relocated to Japan to pursue his career in elementary schooling, teaching English to young students. He spent his last few years retired in Florida surrounded by his family.

Bradley Schaub is survived by father, Albert Schaub of Lake Placid; mother, Iris Schaub of Plant City; and brother, Bryan Schaub of Plant City. Expressions of condolences at www.HopewellFuneral.com.

Tribute Wall

“ I remember Brad as a good guy. We had some fun times out on Torch Lake. He will be missed. ”

Sean Ramsdell - October 12, 2023 at 09:51 PM