My heartfelt prayers go out to Brett's family. I hardly knew him, but he always talked with me and made me smile when I saw him on the elevator. God has brought his Angel home. Peace be with you.

“ I knew Brett from the gym. We talked about his dreams and goals in life. He was dedicated to working out. He was especially great in doing pull-ups and manipulating the pull up bars. Brett had an awesome personality and a sweet spirit. You left us too soon buddy! My sincere condolences to his family and friends. May his beautiful soul rest with our heavenly God. Z. Hamade'

“ My dear sweet Brett, I will miss your hugs, your smile and all the times you made me laugh And of course the time your mom told us she dressed you up and entered you in a contest ... I know we teased you hard ..But you were a trooper and took it lightheartedly... I will cherish our memories forever ... You were an angel on earth and I have no doubt gods plan includes you front in center with that beautiful smile and your ability to entertain and bring laughter to anyone you meet !

Bridget you are an amazing mother, not everyone can say they raised a genuine kind , loving , humble young man.. His spirit and attitude was rare in a young adult.. His memory will live in my heart forever ...
