“ As I leave your service and sit and ponder... my friend known as "French Fry" is no longer on this side with me. I'll never forget hearing the news that you were now resting in the bosom of the Almighty Father. I'll forever cherish the hugs and laughs we shared. I'll forever cherish your smile and our hallway talks and walks at the court house. I'll forever cherish you my dear friend "French Fry", until we meet again on the other side. I'll forever Cherish you.

“ BrianI just heard you left us all ,and it was a big shock for me to hear this news.

Last I saw you , you were trying on your shirts I had tapered for you. We knew one another for many years. I think you were like my first customer ,and was loyal to that. I so enjoyed seeing you talking with you about all your interests as I pinned your shirt, and sometimes pinned you .Oh how we laughed because it never failed

I sure will miss you . You were so easy to talk to. We shared our faith , and I know you are in the hands of our loving Lord Jesus honny . You helped so many people with so many different needs. You are loved, and you are blessed.

One day we all will meet again my dear friend .

“ Brian, I remember sleep-overs and holidays at my Aunt Emmy’s house, where you would always be there keeping us active, wrestling with me and Michael (lots of head-locks and choke-holds) driving us around in the tractor, playing with the dogs, swimming and letting me watch TV shows (like Beavis and Butthead) that my parents wouldn’t let me watch at home (sorry Brian, I couldn’t keep the secret forever). I always loved getting some of your old clothes and thought they were “cool” because they came from my older cousin. I remember going to your soccer games and watching you play, thinking you were definitely going to be a professional player someday. Brian, I’m so sad that I never took the chance to tell you how much I always looked up to you, how proud I am of you for being a great dad to your daughters, and serving your community honorably. I love you man, and will always remember you for your sense of humor, your care for your family, your genuine sense of duty and responsibility for those around you and in your community, and lastly for being my big cousin.

“ Brian literally changed my life two and a half years ago! It was he that whispered into the ear of my wife and myself to let me know about the veterans treatment Court! I was going to take my case to trial because I did not feel that I was guilty of what I was being charged with! That really didn't matter because God put Brian in my life for a reason and I am grateful that it did happen. Because of Brian and his enthusiasm and encouragement and sheer determination, I have a purpose in life to help others while also including our veterans! I will never forget his smile, enthusiasm, and guidance even though he was younger than me! I learned a lot from him in just a short while! I am blessed to have had him be a part of my life as well as one of God's angels here on Earth to guide me and now I am assured and confident that Brian is now watching over me and us all! I won't ever ever ever forget you my friend for what you did for my family and myself! May God bless you and may your soul be at peace knowing that you have touched by self and many many others in such an awesome way! Miss you already bro!
