

Ms. Brianna "Bri" Rae Stamm

October 16, 2015

LAKELAND - Brianna Rae Stamm, 27, our supermodel surfer girl has left us here on this earth with now only the memory of her contagious laugh. She was found Friday, October 16, 2015, in her home unresponsive. It was evident she had lost her final decade long battle with addiction. And although her struggles were a very real part of her, we choose to remember the unique ray of sunshine she brought to so many lives.

She is survived by her father, Jeffrey Stamm; and sister, Michaela; her step-mother, Amy Stamm; and step-brother, Michael.

Brianna is finally free to ride the waves with her late mother, Jennifer Naylor Stamm. Your obvious physical beauty was no match for how lovingly beautiful you were on the inside Banz! May you rest in peace.
