“ Bruce was such an outstanding young man and unusual in this day and time. Definitely a great example for the younger generation to follow. A loving husband (there was NO doubt that man LOVED Susan--that was a true love story)and father, a leader in the church and community and a wonderful law enforcement officer. Years ago when I arrived home to find our property covered with Sheriff Deputies and the K9 teams looking for an escaped convict, I was fearful for our Dobermans and how they were tolerating the situation. I shouldn't have been worried because as I drove up, there was Bruce with his hands on my dogs' heads and they were happy! Bruce always was good with dogs and had a trick or two up his sleeve to win dogs over to his side. And he was never too busy to show respect the elderly, or stop and speak to a small child. He was a caring, gentle man and will be greatly missed by all. Our Prayers are with you and your family Susan, George and Glenda Piasecki

I was proud that Bruce called me friend. I know of no one that was a better man. He will be sorely missed. I am so sorry he had to go so young. I can only figure God must have needed him for a special project right away

“Heaven gained an amazing angel. I just can't understand why? I feel like he had so much left to do and be on this earth. He wanted nothing more than to care for his wife, cheer on his boys, and watch his grandchildren grow up. I pray that time will show the reason that this incredible man was taken too soon. His beautiful, kind and giving soul meant so much to so many. My heart is broken at the loss of my amazing friend but even more so for his beautiful family. I know that Bruce felt that his time on earth was not done but he surrendered to what he felt was God's will. His faith in God is what gave him peace. The earthly world has definitely lost a great human. I will miss you Bruce and love you so much. I will continue to pray for your family that they can heal and carry on what you have instilled in them. You, my friend, were one of a kind. Rest easy and guide us all from above. ❤️
