“ To The Family and Friends of Bryan "BOOBOO" MacPherson

Would you know what one would look like ?

Would you recognize one, if you saw one through one's eyes or their smile?

Would you recognize one by their touch, or even their smell??

Would you notice one by their footprints on shore along the sea?

Would you agree an angel can be many of things to follow us in our dreams to serve and protect us in our journey to be?

I didn't know, but I do know now :

Angels surround us no matter where we go, Angels are our guardians of hope and the wonder of our dreams,

Remember to always leave space in your hearts so the angels have room to play and sing.

Our Angels are our keepers, keeping each day as god intended it to be; wherever there is love, an angel is flying over and unseen.

Every time you hear a bell, another angel has earned its wings

Angels are with you every step of the way, and help you soar with amazing grace.

After all, we are angels in training

We are always "angels on call" with foot prints we leave, an angel of ours you will always be!!!

We all shall see you soon friend.....

“ I always enjoyed working with Bryan and his sunny disposition. We became friends over the length of his career. He was always ready with a joke or a story. He was always helpful, reliable, and reasonable. Traits that are hard to find these days. I will miss him. We at Wager Company send our heartfelt sympathy and condolences for your loss. He is with God now and we will all meet again.

11 years ago I introduced my best friend Lisa to her soul mate Bryan. I did this because I had met him thru a good friend of mine at work. Donna V and I decided to introduce them to each other. At the time we had not a clue that they would be smitten with each other and form a deep and lasting love. I never worried about Lisa after that because I knew that she was safe with Bryan and he would take care of her, make her laugh as much as possible but most of all he would love her unconditionally. He will trully be missed for there will never be another like him, his smile, his laughter and his willingness to help everyone. RIP Bryan
