“ My name is Dennis W. Moseley I was the owner/operator of the Mayo Bargan Shop on Everson st. in plant city. I knew bud as a regular customer for years before learning from mutual friends of his accomplishments.

He always was personable and friendly to everyone, his favorite thing to do in my shop was looking through a box of old photos that I sold. He always found some that he had to have and I gave a lot to him as he had bought plenty of them before. He also liked to get supplies for his class he had. Once getting a whole box of coffee mugs to decorate.

I had many wonderful conversations with bud and feel the world was better place with him here. Bud will always be alive in my memories.

Thank you for the opportunity to share my thoughts.
