“ Dear Grace, Tim, Tina and family,
My family attended Dover Baptist for 25 years and the Davis family was always a steadfast and faithful servant of the Lord. Although you will miss Carl's presence, knowing that his transition into Glory will bring a peace that only Jesus gives.
Sending prayers and love to you all,

“ Our family was part of FBC Dover 1986-1994, and I worked with Carl during some of the great growth period of the church as a staff member. He was an integral part of the completion of the Family Life Center under my ministry, and was a deacon leader in ministry to many families in the area including ours. We lived next door to Carl and Grace in the church parsonage, and they were such good neighbors with our small children. God used Carl to accomplish great things!
