“ We knew each other for almost forty years. During those forty years we shared some the most momentous events....our wedding, the birth of our children, the deaths of our fathers, the death of our marriage. During those times we were still friends. When you came to share my house you were an old, embittered, grumpy man who didn't like anything, I hardly knew you and felt very sorry for what you had become. But, gradually you started to change and gained your sense of humor, started liking people and kids. That was due to little aiden and Connor. Then when Carla got pregnant you were as happy and excited as I was. I know you were thrilled and excited about the baby and started to plan to be there for this child. I'm sorry you won't be here physically but now you will be able to watch over wherever and play with her as her Angel. Carl you will missed I'm glad you made peace with the family. I hope someday that Nadine realized how much you loved her too. Rip.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Carl's passing. He had suffered a long time with his illness. We have lost several loved ones in the past year and a half and my heart aches for each of you. Don't forget the lord is our comfort and our strength in the days ahead. I love each of you and will be praying for you all.

Love, Aunt Sarah
