“ I have been trying to find out what happened to Carol for the past year. We lost contact when her sister made her move out of the home they both shared that my grandfather purchased. Carol is my grandmother and nobody reached out to tell me she passed. She was the best. The first person I ever knew that worked from home on a computer in the 80's. She fostered a ton of kids who were homeless and going through problems. Her and my grandfather were a dynamic duo. We used to visit all the way from the 80's to the 90's. In 2015 Carol got to see my daughters Penny and Lucy. Her 3 year old granddaughter Penny passed away in 2015 of soft tissue sarcoma so hopefully they get to see each other again. I wanted to see her again.

“ I was blessed to have gotten to know Ms. Carol over the last 3 month. I volunteered on Thursdays and always stopped in and spent time listening to her many stories about her sons and grandchildren. She loved to speak of her Father and what a hard worker he was for the family. She had an incredible sense of humor and always made me laugh. Her nurse loved her so much too!!! We spoke of Heaven and she knew Jesus so I know she is at home with Him now. I can't wait to see her again one sweet day! ❤️✝️🕊️
