“ So sorry to hear about Carol passing. I remember her when we attended Shiloh and she was such a kind person with a very loving spirit. My heart aches for her loved ones as they have to say goodbye, but please know that one day you will be reunited in Heaven and embrace her again. Free of pain and a family reunion that will last an eternity.

“ Aunt Carol always allowed myself and sisters over for summer swimming and fun with Tara. Never a dull moment. I remember the surprise party she planned for Tara's sweet 16. All the love, sweat and labor that went into that party just to make her little girl happy which was a success. I will never forgot all the kind loving words Aunt Carol always said to me. You will truly be missed.

“ So sorry for the loss of Carol. When my youngest was born, she helped me so much my first week at home. I had no one else. My husband had to work, and my parents were deceased. She gave me her time and attention after a c-section, and loved me through it. She will be missed, but the angels are rejoicing! Prayers for the family, this is a tough thing to deal with. God Bless each and every one.
