My cousin Carole was so much fun when we were kids. I often spent the night at her house. Aunt Mandy took us shopping and to church. It was an adventure for me. RIP dear Carole.

My name is Karen Grant & I was Carole's boss years ago. Carole was my right hand when we worked together. I just heard from one of my technicians about Carole's passing. I attended her mother's funeral, her son's wedding & visited her mom when she was in the hospital & when she was at the nursing home. I am devastated & shocked to hear the news even though I haven't spoken to Carole in years. Prayers up for Carole's family. Carole loved her sons so much & was proud of all three of them. Carole shared so many stories over the years and as she spoke you heard the pride in her voice.

God blesses those who mourn, for they will be comforted. (NLT) (Matthew 5:4)

My heartfelt condolence! Sometimes we don't always know what to say and sometimes end up causing more heartache than comfort with our words. However, God knows how to comfort you. You are not walking through this alone, He is at your side. Cry out to the Lord when you feel at a loss, He will soothe your distress. Wanted 2 let u know that I'm praying 4 your family during this difficult time, I can't imagine the pain u r feeling right now. U must feel so alone on this journey of losing Carole. It's like time 4 u is standing still & the world keeps moving oblivious of your loss. God will take care of u during this difficult time. Again, my condolences, I am sooooo sorry! Rest in peace Carole.

“ I'm so glad I got the chance to meet her. she was so much fun to talk to. she sure did love Starbucks and the beach. though I only knew her a short time I am blessed to have had her in my life. a happy memory is trying to get the beach straight. and the missing broom. she will always be remembered. Rest in peace until we meet again.
