“ I met Carolyn in my early twenties who became cousins by marriage by my children's father. There is so many stories we raised our kids together our kids now are growing and giving us grandbabies so many stories. Carol of the work what is the time she had two jobs. She get a car she had to have leather seats in their car she loved leather seats she loved fresh cut flowers. She loved dressing up and she did a good job of it. We had so many memories I'll have to put the stories a little bit at a time cuz there's too many. Once we lived in The Farmhouse that was my step daddy's we're roommates that time we've been roommates a couple times I had my two children she had Bobby. Oh my gosh did we have a blast we had hard times but we had a blast. We laughed we cried. Our little kids were just Rugrats in they're grown now giving us grandbabies. I'll tell some stories later sure going to miss her.

here's another story I got to make sure I get this. One correct. In the early 80s we young we're ready to go hang we went to a small little Tavern . Don't even remember the name but the bathroom was very small just barely had room for two people the sink someone standing and someone use in the bathroom Me and Carolyn is fussing about something .I do not know what it was. We got into it we tore the bathroom sink Lili off the wall lol the owner came in there and kicked out we had to leave we got outside we started laughing so hard so hard we're both squatting and the laughing we've got to get in the same car and drive. We made up can't fight in the car and we went somewhere else....
