“ We are very saddened with the passing of Aunt Kay. We have such great memories from Holidays and picnics with her and Uncle George, as she referred to him as Georgie.
With heavy hearts, she is at peace with Uncle George.

“ Everyone called her Kay, but I called her Aunt Catherine. I have so many memories of laughter and getting into "trouble" in the most gentle ways. Sneaking Fig-Newton cookies into a movie theater, and a little apple juice, too. She carried me emotionally when I lost my own Mother, her sister, Anne. Aunt Catherine adored her grandchildren, and when I became a first time Grandma, she and I bonded even closer. It has been a very long time since the two of us were able to function together, I loved her dearly. She is Home now, and Well! Praise God. Give my love to Mom, Dad, and Uncle George! Love and joy!
