“ So many good memories of Aunt Cecile and Uncle Aaron... I have prayed for Susan and Joey and all the family and reflecting on the many happy times we had together and on the hope we share that we will all be reunited in in Heaven. Although we live so far away and time has sped past us, please know that you are loved and that you still hold a place in my heart. - George Husted

“ She was a lady who truly loved life, her family and her church.

I remember the first time I met Cecile, 25 yrs. ago when she asked if she could work in Missionettes. I began to admire and developed a high respect for her passion and dedication to Gods word, His people, His church. She was apart of the Missionette values, loved what Missionettes exposed the girls to and what it stood for. She was my Hero. We bonded through Missionettes...we both had "The Passion."

She was all about the things that have value for eternity. In spite of the sadness, my life is richer, just because of her She will always be in my heart.

Go Cecile into Gods presence, to the throne of Grace with confidence for God too loves Missionettes!
