“ Dad we do miss you. Regardless of what has transpired through the years "it is what it is." The biggest gift ever given was you were always there. That taught me more than anything else. I pray the respect and love from my children will be as real as you had. May you rest in peace!

I remember this like it was yesterday.... At my Uncles wedding we were asked to pick someone to dance the first dance with. I immediately ran to my Dad.

“ My father wasn't a man of many words. He said what he meant and meant what he said. I feel so blessed to have had him as my father but most of all honored for him to have been my friend. I could only dream to be half the person he was. My father was the most remarkable man I have ever known. He was talented beyond words and he will be missed everyday.

“ Seeing Charlie in Hopewell Funeral Home brought back memories of 30 years this December. Charlie, the only one of my children living in Florida at the time of, his Father's death(Lawrence Bernard Beaudry) was devastated with disbelief when he viewed his father in Bellview, Fl Mortuary. It's ironic that all our worry and concern about Charlie's health, agewise , he outlived his Father by nearly 2 years. We have Kim, Chris and Cliff to cherish our memories of Charlie. To all his numerous relatives scattered around the .U. S. who hasn't seen much of him over the years due to location, he often told stories about some of the pranks he, his siblings and cousins engaged in. Gone but never forgotten. Love, Mom

“ I am sorry for your loss. Charlie was my first cousin, but I have not seen him for a long time. My sympathy to all.

“ Charlie impressed me as a person who strived for one thing in his years at Palm Harbor- doing a job and doing it right. To Charlie that was "one thing" because he wouldn't do something if he didn't know it was right....and he was tireless doing it- hardest worker i've ever met....he didn't think about how big the project was - he just did it...and ..AND he never looked for recognition for his outstanding performance and dedication..He truly enjoyed the work and the people around him as was evident by his good nature and his laugh...he will be missed and not be lost in my memory..john doeden, engineering

“ Charlie was always there for a friend when you needed him. Behind this rough and tough exterior was a guy with a heart of gold. He was fun loving and witty. Charlie said it like it was and was not known for sugar coating anything. I could call Charlie if I needed help and I knew that he would be there for me no matter what time of day it was. I will miss him dearly. He was a great friend and I loved him.
