“ Charles G. Grimes Sr. A man of outstanding character, a man of his word. His love for his Lord, his family and friends, generous to all. He loved farming and always looking for ways to help and improve the community as well as farming industry. If you look around you will see the works he and his late wife of many years, Betty J. Grimes contributed to the community. A great asset to all in many unseen ways. For me his generosity in helping me through many emotional and sick times was a blessing. I will forever be grateful I knew this man. Better known as THE REAL DEAL. A man full of love.

“ My deepest condolences to Mr. Grimes family and extended family. I have always had profound respect for Mr. Grimes. Not only was he one of the most generous human beings to my family and I, but he also taught me lessons in character with how firmly he held his convictions and how truly he was a man of integrity. One thing I will never forget is how deeply he loved his wife, Betty. He can now be reunited with her, which is one reason to rejoice. I will always be grateful for every opportunity that he has given me and for how he has loved and taken care of me and my family over the years. Rest in peace Mr. Grimes.
