“ Rob was always the "go to" person. If he couldn't tell you how to fix he would loan you enough money to get it fixed. I'm thankful that in these last few years of failing health and human frailty I had the chance to show him now much I loved him, and to be part of "the three amigos" Rob part of my heart rests with you but there is comfort in knowing that you are already in a place where the rest of us are working to get to go.
