“ Missing this crazy, nice, loving, funny, giving man today. I met Lamar when I started at the County almost 31 years ago when he came in with Ronnie Collins who wanted to marry me after he asked me if I had a check book. It was so funny, the two peas in a Pod. We went to Ronnies funeral together. We ate, drank and laughed alot. He helped me and I helped him with zoning questions. Handsome funny guy. We may have tipped a few too many once or twice but we survived. Love him and miss he and Becky and the workers at the stand.. I visited him once at the memory care/ALF in Plant City, glad I did. See you in heaven and I will buy you a drink.
