“ Charlotte was one of the sweetest ladies I have ever met. I met her about 30 years ago at FUMC and she always had a smile, warm hugs, and just such a great person to be around. Was in small group with her for many years. Used to sometimes go sit with her and watch the Tampa Bay Lightning play. it was fun to see her excited. I remember once going to see her out on Wilder Road. She was sleeping and the nurse said she was "grumpy". Paige and I went in -- Paige told her I was there. She woke up and was smiling and happy to see me. She always made me feel special. There will always be a special place in my heart for Ms. Charlotte.

My mother, Sarah Dale Prophet and I were watching the Palm Sunday service at FUMC and she was sad to hear of Mrs Walden's passing. They were together in high school as well as many Strawberry Festival luncheons and she is fondly remembered. Also, of course my father Wallace, who passed away last April, grew up at Coronet and all the residents of the village were very close and the subject of his memoir of those years. Our prayers to the family as you recall the blessings of her life.

“ My mother, Mary Altys Bracewell Hodges, and Charlotte were close friends since their high school years. They kept in touch and visited together often. One of my mother's favorite things to do was come to Plant City for their class of '46 luncheons and to see Charlotte. I know that right now both of them are up there in Heaven talking and laughing with their classmates who proceeded them there. Charlotte was a wonderful person.
