“ Sherry wore her heart on her sleeve. Anyone who knew her, knew she had a heart as big as the sun. She loved what she did and it showed each and every day. Sherry gave her all to those around her. Her passion, her compassion, and her personal generosity endeared her to all who had the pleasure and honor of working with her. And she was REALLY GOOD at what she did.

My heart hurts. Sherry, my friend, you will be dearly missed.
