“ I grew up with Christine and I was always amazed with her love of life and living it to the fullest. Although I haven't seen her in years, we did reconnect on Facebook last year. I am sorry for the families loss. The yellow candle represents her smile and heart.

“ Words cannot express what a joyful, beautiful person she was -so full of life as children growing up together.
Swimming in the Alafia River & jumping off the Alafia Bridge
-Great childhood memories.
We shared so many memories together. Hair-makeup & shorts.
The skating rink on Friday nights together with Nancy & Jimmy (God Bless him) your Mom & Dad.
The nights of working with all of you with Dorothy wrapping paper for the paper route. We always looked out for one another along with the sisters & brother.
Nancy - I know you're hurting- my heart goes out to you honey.
Brenda, Dorothy & I love your honey --take care of yourself.
