

Mr. Christopher M. Bowmer

March 15, 2015

BOWMER, Christopher M., 23, of Lakeland, Florida, passed away on Sunday, March 15, 2015, due to a tragic motorcycle accident. He graduated from Plant City High School in 2010, and he was a life-long fan of the Florida State Seminoles. He loved riding motorcycles, sitting on his best friends front porches just to watch the cars drive by, and spending time with his wife and son at the park. Chris is survived by his wife, Courtney (20) and their son, Aiden (15 Months); parents John Bowmer and Christine McNutly; paternal grandparents Jerry and Maribel Bowmer; maternal grandparents Brenda Burney and Warren Officer; 4 sisters, and 3 brothers; fellow "TNT Ryders" family; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and in-laws. Chris a.k.a. "Boner" will surely be missed since he was always the life of the party and his smile made any gloomy day brighter. “ A death is always hard to swallow but when its someone so young, with a new family, so much life to live its unbearable. I'm not going to lie and pretend we've always agreed or say we had the best relationship as but I will say that I am so proud of the man you've become over the last several months. You seemed to really grow and cherish the ones who love you most. Watch over that handsome boy who is 100% your mini-me. Lead him and guide him to be a wonderful man in the years to come. Aiden will always know his Daddy and how much he is loved. Courtney has so much support and I know she will forever miss you. May you rest in peace... until we meet again. We love you. -Anthony & Casey Bryant ♡♡

“ I have so many memories...like how you talked me in to finally getting my first tattoo; all the goofy faces you would send me on snap chat; the look on your face and tears in your eyes as you watched Courtney walk down the aisle on your wedding day; and the one memory that is so vivid was the day Aiden was born. When you came out to the waiting room to tell us he had finally arrived, you were crying and said "He is so big" lol.

Forever in our hearts and memories.

Love always,

Your favorite Mom-In-Law (as you would say)
