“ Bubba, you were my big brother growing up . You knew everything and showed me everything from fishing, shooting guns to tricks on my fourwheeler even taught me how to drive when I had to be your designated driver yelling at me cause I would break the whole time while taking a turn. You and cory would make me and all the cousins eat worms you dug up by the shed to play fear factor. I will forever hold on to our last memory together the night you past all your babys and everyone was out by the road you scared me when you shot your gun at the squarls right beside me with no warning and alex had his little Beebe gun right beside you. We sat out there for alittle bit trying to spot squarls. What I'd give to have that back you made everyone laugh and it was always a good time when you were around. The craziest and toughest person I'll ever know. I love you so much.

Christopher Wade Mayo, you were taken too early in life. I'm sure your family will grieve for sometime to come. Please reach it to them to heal their pain and mend their hearts. I can't imagine what your spouse and children are going through. Being a father myself and watching a very strong father that you have breaking down demonstrates the love this family has for you. May God have welcomed you home and told you the very words every human desires to hear "you've done well my good and faithful servant, welcome home".

May God Bless your family and assist in the pain that will be driven away over time. We are here to attend to their needs, so rest in peace brother knowing we got this!

Reese, Tammy Jo, Cayce, and Olivia Ferguson
