“ To the Watkins family. May your family find peace and comfort in the Lord Jesus during this time of your loss.
It was a pleasure to get to know Chris as we worked together as well as the many personal conversations we had. Chris was a fine man with a good heart. Chris will surely be missed by many. Blessings knowing that Chris is in the arms of Christ.
Blessings, Sal Fiducia.

“ It was an honor to get to know Chris through work. He was a hard worker who was always willing help any way he could. Chris rode with me quite often and we got to know each other pretty well. I know for sure that he loved his family, especially his kids. He wanted to be the best father and husband that he could be. RIP my friend.

“ Logan, Becky and Abby - our hearts break for you and we lift you up in our prayers. Asking for His grace and peace in your hearts and minds. Your dad was so very proud of his children and rightfully so! Chris was a true friend that I could have called on for anything within his power to do and he would have shown up. We got to talk about Jesus together during some rough patches of life and I got to watch him grow as a believer in Christ. See you again my friend.
Love, Clint Dame
