“ I love and miss my grandpa so much, I remember as a child my 1st time going fishing with my grandpa in odessa and i loved it and became his fishing buddy from there on. I miss when he had his farm in ky and all of the hay rides especially the ones at night ,just lay out on the wagon in the field and star gaze. Lots of great memories and now he has joined grandma in heaven and they r together once again. I luv and miss ya'll grandma and grandpa, I love ya'll so much.

“ It's hard to Believe that Bro. Johnson has Gone On! What Absolutely Wonderful Memories I Have Of Him. One of the Fondest was during a Revival Meeting I was Holding at God's Miracle Mission in Dover, FL.(sometime during the very early 2000's); Bro. David Lamb had just begin Pastoring the Church; and I Remember that Bro. Timothy Baggett Jr. was there; it was a Tremendous Revival Meeting! One Particular Night, the Power of God Got so Strong, and Several Took Off Running around the Church(including Bro. Johnson); when He arrived at the Back of the Church, He Went Down Under the Power of God! He laid there and Praised And Glorified God! It was Marvelous, and it's a Memory I'll never Forget! May God Bless and Comfort the Johnson Family during this time!
