“ In reading the obits in The Observer today, my eyes rested on a familiar name, and my heart broke for your family. As a former neighbor of Glenda's, my girls Lisa and Gina, grew up with Michelle (Chelle) and Cheryl (Sissy). Glenda's home was never happier than when full of family, and I remember Nita (Nene) and her love for her grandbabies. I remember at the holidays when it was always her dressing that her kids and grandkids couldn't wait for her to get there for them to eat. She had a quick smile that I will always remember.. So Glenda, Roy, Janice, Karen and Cindy the old hymn Precious Memories is what comes to mind. And grandbabies you know she will live on forever in your hearts, I am so sad at the loss of your Nene. Love, The Pugliese Family (Jerry, Joanne, Lisa and Gina)
